MASSACRED ITALIANS.

Colorado Lynchers Add Two More to Their List of Victims.

SIX LIVES SACRIFICED FOR ONE.

Two of the Men Suspected of Complicity in the Murder of Hixon Riddled with Bullets by Two Masked Men as They Groveled in Their Prison Cell.

WALSENBURG, Colo., March 14.—Four dead bodies are now in the hands of the coroner of Huerfano county as the result of the vengeance wreaked Tuesday night on the Italian miners who were charged with the killing of Abner Hixon in a most brutal manner at Rouse, last Sunday night, by beating him over the head with a club, and two more Italians have unquestionably been riddled with bullets by friends of the popular saloon keeper. A few hours will almost certainly bring the discovery of the corpses, and every man against whom there is the slightest suspicion of complicity in the killing has met with summary and frightful punishment.

Three of the four bodies are those of Hixon's alleged assailants; the fourth is that of Joe Welsby, who was driving four of the Italians to jail in a wagon when he met his death. The dead are (the first four being in the hands of the coroner):

Antonio Lorenzo, charged by the coroner's jury to have struck the blow which crushed Hixon's skull and caused his death. 24 years of age, unmarried, an Italian citizen.

Stanislau Vettari, 30 years of age, married, wife and three children in Italy; intention of becoming an American citizen declared.

Francisco Penchetto, 27 years of age, unmarried; intention of becoming an American citizen declared.

Joe Welsby, 23 years, unmarried.

Pietro Giacabino, 34 years of age; young son living here; said to have taken out first papers.

Antonio Apetto, 24 years of age, married; wife and three children in Italy; first papers taken out.

Though the mob commenced its work Tuesday evening, it was not until yesterday morning that the work of revenge was completed, after having killed three of the suspected homicides and brought death to the young wagon driver, who had nothing to do with the killing of Hixon.

When the three Italians captured from the wagon at Bear Creek bridge, where Welsby was killed, had been made way with, the small but determined mob waited for the excitement to subside, and then came to the county jail here, and a few minutes before 1 a. m. completed the work of revenge they had commenced six hours before. Penchetto, who had been wounded in the breast at the Bear Creek trouble, was found asleep in the calaboose with Lorenzo.

The guards placed at the jail, William Smith and Henry Farr, where playing cards when a rap came at the outer door of the jail. They asked who was there, and were told it was Sheriff O'Malley. Without a moment's hesitation they unbarred the entrance, and instead of seeing O'Malley they looked down the barrels of two revolvers in the hands of two masked men. The experiences of others earlier in the night taught them to obey the command to throw down their pistols and throw up their hands.

While the first two men covered Farr and Smith with their pistols another pair, with their faces hidden by handkerchiefs, and carrying big guns in their hands, stalked in. One of the last arrivals picked up the keys to the cell in the jail, and, going back into the building, unlocked the door where lay the now trembling Italians, who felt sure their time had come, and in their broken English begged piteously for mercy.

The avengers had no mercy for the doomed Italians. In the cell with them was Frank Olk, who is charged with a brutal rape. He was gruffly told to stand aside, and slunk into a corner of the cell. The masked men then turned their pistols loose on the Italians, who shrieked in agony as bullet after bullet was sent tearing into their defenseless bodies. One of the first shots must have brought relief to Lorenzo, whom the men seemed to regard with especial hatred, as the officially declared murderer, for their leaden balls were sent into his brain.

Penchetto was not so fortunate. One bullet passed through his head and two tore great holes in the thoracic cavity, but instant death was not to be his good fortune, for he writhed and groaned in intense agony for as much as twenty minutes, when the vigilantes felt their work was surely done, and turned away, leaving their victims writhing in their own and in one another's blood, while the cowering brute who had seen it all was too terrified to utter a sound.

When the last bullet had been fired that was thought necessary to avenge one death with six, the men who had done the latest piece of killing walked out from the jail into the dark night. A moment or two later the keepers of the two guards backed out through the door and closed it behind them. Farr and Smith now picked up their own revolvers and fired five shots through the heavy wooden door after the retreating men. Summoning up courage, they peered out in a few seconds, and seeing six or eight men making off on foot across the railroad tracks, they shot at them until they were out of sight.

Uncle Sam Wants an Explanation.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—Acting Secretary of State Uhl, at the instance of the Italian legation in this city, has telegraphed the governor of Colorado for an explanation of the state of affairs there in connection with the killing of the Italians at Walsenburg, Colo.

Taylor's Reported Capture.

PIERRE, S. D., March 14.—Governor Sheldon admits that he would not be surprised to see W. W. Taylor return to Pierre soon. The governor declines, however, to give anything definite. Other state officers give credence to the report of Taylor's capture, but know nothing definite.

FATAL HOTEL FIRES.

Three Lives Lost in West Virginia and Two in Wisconsin.

HENDRICKS, W. Va., March 14.—I. D. Jenkins' hotel at Mackieville, about four miles from here, was consumed by fire about 1 o'clock in the morning. All of Jenkins' household goods were burned up, with his store goods, which were in the same building. Three men were burned to death and three more so badly burned that two of them cannot live. The dead are Homer Catlett, L. R. Sisson and Squire J. S. Corley. The injured are James Jenkins, J. Williams and J. Coffner. Fifteen persons escaped by jumping from windows.

The hotel was a big two-story frame structure, and the fire was sweeping through it when it was first discovered by Mrs. Jenkins, who aroused the family and guests as quickly as possible. No effort could be made to save any effects, and the only efforts were to arouse those who were asleep. All had retired when the fire broke out in the kitchen, and rapidly spread to the second story. The only two stairways in the building, one in the front part and one in the rear, were both cut off when those from the lower floor gave the alarm. Those who escaped, therefore, jumped from the windows, and some sustained slight injuries in addition to their burns.

Every room was occupied, there being over forty people in the hotel. Jacob Coffner, William Wilson, J. K. Williams and James Jenkins were in one room. They were driven back from the hallway exit by the flames, and all were badly burned in trying to escape by the stairway. Then they tried the windows, but the flames were sweeping up so that they had to jump through a furnace of flames. They were so badly hurt and burned that Coffner is the only one of the four who can recover.

In two other rooms on the second floor were Eugene Sisson, Homer Catlett and James Corley. They all perished and their remains were so charred as to be almost beyond recognition. It is believed they were suffocated and unable to get out of their room. The positions in which their bodies were found would indicate that they never got out of their room, and all died together.

Fatalities at a Hotel Fire.

KESHONA, Wis., March 14.—The Indian hotel, on the Menominee Indian reservation, about ten miles north of Keshona, kept by Michael Duprey, burned with all its contents Tuesday night. Mrs. Duprey and her mother, Mrs. Charlotte Drisbois, were in the upper rooms, and both jumped from the windows. Mrs. Drisbois was killed by the fall and Mrs. Duprey was probably fatally hurt.

The March Blizzard in the West.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 14.—The blizzard predicted by the weather bureau arrived on schedule time. The mercury began falling about 10 a. m. yesterday, and at 9 p. m. had reached 10 above zero. This morning it is below the zero mark. A northwest gale is blowing, accompanied by fine, hard snow which intensifies the severity of the cold. The weather bureau officers state that the cold wave extends over New Mexico, Colorado, Nebraska, Kansas, Missouri, Oklahoma, Indian Territory and northern Texas.

Gains for Pittsburg Mine Strikers.

PITTSBURG, March 14.—There are but few changes in the condition of the miners' strike and they are in favor of the strikers. The Banksville mines, employing 900 men, are at work today at the sixty-nine cent rate, as are all the Beadling miners on the Pan Handle road. The latter employ about 300 men. This, according to the figures of the miners' officials, makes a total of fully 17,000 men at work at the union rates out of 22,000 miners in the entire district.

Mrs. Vanderbilt Off for Europe.

NEW YORK, March 14.—Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt and her daughter Consuelo sailed for Liverpool yesterday on the White Star line steamer Teutonic. The booking was made at the pier, and in a name other than her own. She will return, it is said, in the early summer for the season at Newport. The Vanderbilts took five maids and one man servant, and had over half a hundred pieces of luggage. They occupied two suites on the big liner.

The Will of Mrs. Tabor.

DENVER, March 14.—The will of the late Mrs. Augusta L. Tabor, divorced wife of ex-Senator Tabor, was filed in the county court yesterday. She bequeathed to her son, Nathaniel Maxey Tabor, one-half of her entire estate, valued at over $1,000,000. She directs that the other half shall be divided equally between her brothers and sisters.

Secretary King's Condition Still Serious.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 14.—Myron D. King, the governor's private secretary, who was injured in the riot at the house of representatives Monday night, is no better. The doctor says the chief danger of his patient will be in the event of inflammation.

PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE.

Governor Hastings Signs the Bill for a Department of Agriculture.

HARRISBURG, March 14.—A resolution was reported yesterday from the rules committee and adopted that no bills shall be read in place after March 25, except by unanimous consent. The vote by which the Hicks bill establishing public employment bureaus in cities was defeated Tuesday night was reconsidered, and the bill amended so as not to make it compulsory.

A communication was received from the governor giving notice of his approval of bills creating a department of agriculture; appropriating $40,000 to the Huntingdon reformatory for additional cell houses, and $69,000 to complete the industrial school for soldiers' orphans at Scotland.

In the senate the bill appropriating $500,000 for the preservation and improvement of the channels of navigable rivers of the state, and to facilitate navigation between Philadelphia and the sea, passed finally with only six opposing votes.

Among bills introduced were: By Mr. Penrose: Making fifty-five hours a week's work for women and children in manufacturing and other establishments; prohibiting the employment in factories of various kinds of children under 14 years old; requiring specifications for work to be furnished and a proper temperature maintained for employes in manufacturing establishments. By Mr. Thomas: Requiring employers to provide seats for females when they are not actively engaged in the discharge of their duties.

On Trial for Kidnaping.

BALTIMORE, March 14.—After many delays the Mamie Toomer kidnaping case came up for trial yesterday. Mamie Toomer is a colored girl, the daughter of Nathan Toomer, of Augusta, Ga. Her father is said to be a wealthy planter. Mamie was brought to Baltimore in March, 1893, and placed in St. Frances academy. Later Dunbar Walton, a young colored man; Carrie Wilson, also colored; Louis E. Franks, a white back driver, and Everett J. Waring, a colored attorney of this city, were indicted for an alleged conspiracy to kidnap Mamie. The ostensible object of the alleged conspiracy was to enable Charles Dixon, the man on whose account Mamie had been brought here, to meet her in Canada and marry her. The case is being tried without a jury.

Governor Marvil Improving.

LAUREL, Del., March 14.—The condition of Governor Marvil is greatly improved. His only brother died on Tuesday from paralysis. The governor's favorite son and partner is dangerously ill with pneumonia, and his nephew and secretary is convalescing from recent illness. The family affliction, coupled with the death of his great friend, Benjamin Fooks, recently, has greatly undermined the frail constitution of the governor, but he is not thought to be in any immediate danger.

Recommended for Pardon.

HARRISBURG, March 14.—The board of pardons recommend pardons in the cases of John Dowling of Philadelphia, robbery; Frank Garvin of Allegheny, voluntary manslaughter, and Elias Steimour of Adams, seduction. A New Oil Field Discovered.

DUBOIS, Pa., March 14.—Oil has been discovered about two miles west of this place. About the first of the year a drill was started there to explore for natural gas, but the work proceeded slowly with no result. The drill reached the second sand at a depth of 2,000 feet yesterday afternoon, and the workmen became elated over the presence of oil in the sand.

Russian Yacht Czarina Safe.

ATHENS, March 14.—The Russian imperial yacht Czarina, which ran on a sand bank while on her way from the Piraeus to Corfu, with the Russian minister to Greece, M. Onou, on board, has been floated. The Russian minister was on his way to greet the czarowitz, and for some time fears were entertained for the safety of the yacht and those on board.

Paul, the first three officers and the last one a director of the defunct Evanston National bank. Paul is the only one in this vicinity at the present time. The aggregate amount alleged to have been embezzled is $44,500.

PROTECT FOREIGNERS.

The Government Handicapped by Inadequate Legislation.

NECESSITY FOR FURTHER POWERS.

The Riot at New Orleans and the Lynching in Colorado May Involve Uncle Sam in Vexatious and Expensive International Complications.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—With two such incidents as those of New Orleans and Walsenburg, Colo., facing them, and such affairs as the Rock Springs massacre of Chinese and the killing of the Italians in New Orleans in the background, the state department officials make no secret of their apprehension that the United States is destined to have serious difficulty in maintaining its treaty relations with foreign nations unless congress comes to the rescue. As it stands now, owing to the limitations placed upon the exercise of the federal power by statute, the government finds itself powerless to protect foreign citizens whom the United States is under solemn treaty obligation to protect.

Under our peculiar conditions the national government can only look to the state to extend protection, and if this is denied or the measure of protection is inadequate it cannot interfere. Meanwhile the state itself is wholly free from any responsibility to the foreign powers with which the United States has entered into treaty relations, and these powers are prohibited from even remonstrating with the offending state government. They can look for redress only to the helpless national government. So it is within the power of any erratic governor, or weak mayor, or even an incompetent chief of police in any city to force an issue that can be decided only by war, and the fate of the whole nation may depend on the conduct of such officials.

This matter was brought to the attention of congress by President Harrison at the instance of the late Secretary Blaine after the adjustment of the trouble that threatened war with Italy as the result of the killing of the Italians in New Orleans, but no action was taken to carry out the suggestion, probably owing to the fact that the necessary legislation might be regarded as an infringement upon the old states rights theory. It is very probable, however, that President Cleveland will feel obliged to again call attention to the subject at the meeting of the next congress, and point out how, in the absence of such legislation, he is obliged to appeal to congress to pay out of the money raised by the whole people large sums for indemnity for outrages committed by a disorderly element in one small place.

Just what shape the proposed legislation will take cannot be now defined, but the prevailing idea will be to make it the business of the United States courts in all parts of the country to protect foreigners in the United States, first through the court deputies, and if that is not sufficient then through the troops of the national government, and to do this without delay in all cases. This would require an amendment of the law passed with the express purpose to prevent the use of troops at elections, but proved to be of much wider scope than was intended, and would otherwise hurt the sensibilities of the strict constructionists of the states rights theory, but as between this and the ever present danger of becoming involved in a foreign war without a reasonable or just cause it is believed that congress will not hesitate to declare for the law.

Cheering the Silver Party.

RALEIGH, March 14.—Senators and representatives of the Populist party in the North Carolina legislature in caucus indorsed and adopted resolutions recommending to the Populists of North Carolina that they give their sympathy and influence to the movement looking toward the organization of a distinct political party which has for its chief issue before the nation the free coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1, but at the same time declaring that the Populists of North Carolina maintain their own identity and distinct organization as Populists.

Thousands Destroyed in an Hour.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 14.—Fire destroyed between $1,000,000 and $2,000,000 worth of property at Fourth and Broad ways last evening. At about 5:30 flames burst out of the windows of the big four story building at 410 West Fifth street, occupied by the English Supply company, dealers in engine supplies and wrought iron materials, and spread with great rapidity. One hour after it started only walls and a mass of burning debris remained to mark the place where the big building had stood.

Death of a Noted English Clergyman.

LONDON, March 14.—The Rev. Dr. Dale, a well known Congregationalist clergyman, is dead. He was born in London in 1829. Dr. Dale was chairman of the Congregational Union of England and Wales in 1868-69. For seven years he edited The Congregationalist, and was the author of a large number of religious works. In 1877 he delivered a series of lectures on preaching, being the first Englishman appointed to the Lyman Beecher lectureship, and in the same year he received from Yale the degree of D. D.

Cape May's New Mayor.

CAPE MAY, March 14.—The municipal election here produced more excitement than any election ever before held here, and its results were a surprise. ALFRED, Me., March 14.—Leroy Fernald, the East Lebanon murderer, awaiting trial for the killing of his mother with an ax and setting fire to the house in which her body lay, died in the county jail. He literally starved himself to death, having refused to take any nourishment for a week.

THE CONSTABLE SHOT TO KILL.

Successfully Resisted the Attempt of a Mob to Release Prisoners.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Colo., March 14.—The whole Cripple Creek district is excited over a lively running fray at Leupton between an officer and a number of miners and former railroad men, in which one man was killed and another badly injured. Constable Frank Leupton had arrested a man named McQuade at Victor for participation in the railroad strikes last summer. A number of his companions objected, and in the melee one man, Seth Walston, was shot through the cheek. The officer finally got Walston and McQuade before a justice of the peace, where both were put under $200 bonds, which they refused to give.

Luepton placed his prisoners on a train to bring them to Cripple Creek, but friends of the men covered the engineer with guns, preventing the train's departure. When the constable approached the locomotive the engineer jumped off and ran. Finally the train was started, but after going a mile was stopped, ostensibly to let off passengers. Parrick Looney and a couple of other men attempted to enter the rear car where Luepton and his officers were. Luepton grappled with Looney, and as he was losing ground pulled a revolver and fired. Looney was instantly killed. The prisoners were finally landed in jail here without further incident, but further trouble is expected.

The body of Looney was taken to Victor. The coroner went there to bring the body to this place in order to hold an inquest. Friends of the dead man gathered in force and prevented the removal of the body. Excitement is high, and if the attempt to remove the body is persisted in there will be more bloodshed.

NEW JERSEY LEGISLATURE.

The Elective Judiciary Bill Passed Over the Governor's Veto.

TRENTON, March 14.—The house yesterday, by a vote of 42 to 18, defeated the cheap ferriage bill, which provided for a ferriage of two cents between the hours of 5 and 8 o'clock a. m. and 5 and 8 p. m. Among other bills passed by the house was that making it illegal for one municipality to erect a pest house in another municipality without the latter's consent.

The senate passed the concurrent resolution introduced by Senator Voorhees, amending the state constitution in a number of respects appertaining to the judiciary. The amendments abolish the lay element of the court of errors and appeals; make the vice chancellors constitutional officers; provide for the divisions of the supreme court, and make the governor appoint the chief justice and attorney general. Vice chancellors are also made executive appointments, instead of being appointed by the chancellor, as at present. The senate also passed the women lawyer bill with only four negative votes. The bill now goes to the governor.

Senator Winton's amendment providing for biennial sessions of the legislature and making assemblymen's terms two years, senators' four years and the governor's four years, also passed the senate. These amendments, if adopted by the house, will have to be adopted by next year's legislature before submission to the people for final approval.

The house this morning passed the elective judiciary bill over the governor's veto. The measure thus becomes a law, having passed the senate Monday night.

SPANISH CRUISER LOST.

Believed to Have Been Wrecked Off the Moorish Coast.

OVER FOUR HUNDRED IN HER CREW.

Present Indications Are That All of These, Officers and Men, Have Found a Watery Grave—One of the Finest Vessels in the Spanish Navy.

GIBRALTAR, March 14.—The Spanish cruiser Reina Regente is believed to have foundered off Tangier, Morocco, during the recent gale. She had a crew of 420 officers and men. Pieces of one of her boats and semaphore flags are reported to have been picked up along the shore near Ceuta and Tarifa.

The Reina Regente had just conveyed the returning Moorish mission to Tangier. She left that port on March 10 for Cadiz, and has not since been heard of. The absence of news from her is causing the greatest anxiety, and it is believed that she has been lost with all hands.

The Reina Regente is a steel protected cruiser and was completed in 1887. Her dimensions are: Length, 320 feet; beam, 50 feet 7 inches; draught, 19½ feet. She is of 4,758 tons displacement, 11,500 horse power and her speed is 20.6 knots. She was one of the three Spanish warships that took part in the great Columbian naval parade in New York harbor in the spring of 1893, the other two having been the Nueva Espana and the Infanta Ysabel.

The cruiser Isla de Luzerne, of the Spanish fleet, sailed yesterday from Algeciras in search of the missing vessel, but it is believed that the search will be fruitless.

One of Spain's Best Vessels.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—The government of Spain has been considering the advisability of increasing its naval representation in the waters of Cuba. The presence of more vessels of war in that locality is desired in order that the government may more effectually and promptly intercept filibustering expeditions that so often threaten the peace of that country, and in assisting in putting down revolutions that arise. The authority for the above statement is Mr. Muruaga, the Spanish minister to the United States, and it was made in connection with the report coming from Gibraltar of the loss of the Spanish cruiser Reina Regente. The minister suggested that the government had ordered or was about to order war vessels to Cuba, but whether the Reina Regente was one of them he did not know positively. The Reina Regente, the minister said, was used in transporting troops and munitions of war between Cadiz, Spain, and the African ports of Tangiers, Suta and Mililla. She was considered one of the best ships in the Spanish navy.

The Starbuck was passing a line to the Seneca at the time of the accident.

Important Mining Decision.

DENVER, March 14. — Judge Hallett granted a temporary injunction to the Delmonte Mining company, restraining the New York Chance company from encroaching upon its territory. ## REPUBLICAN BALLOT REFORM.

The Raines ballot reform bill, so called, which has the approval of Boss Platt and embodies his valuable views on the subject of ballot reform, will undoubtedly be passed in substantially the form in which it was introduced. One feature of this bill which has been little commented upon, but which should be brought to the attention of all citizens, and especially those in rural localities, is that it proposes to do away altogether with personal registration, which is now enforced upon the last day of registration. It is a notorious fact that prior to the enactment of the present rural registration system, the Republican counties in Northern, Eastern and Southern New York winked at if they did not openly encourage acts of colonization of voters from Canada, Vermont and Pennsylvania. It is quite evident that no ballot reform is desired by the present Republican majority that will interfere with the somewhat peculiar notions of ballot reform that have been in vogue in darkest St. Lawrence, Jefferson, Essex, Washington and other strongly Republican counties, or interfere with the rolling up of good old-fashioned Republican majorities, somewhat regardless of the legality of the votes making up those majorities.

BY PHILLIPS BROOKS.

[The following poem, never before published, was found in one of Phillips Brooks' early notebooks, in which he jotted down thoughts and memoranda.—Boston Transcript.]

Along the noisy city ways
And in this rattling city car,
On this the dreariest of days,
Perplexed with business fret and jar,

When suddenly a young, sweet face
Looked on my petulance and pain
And lent it something of its grace
And charmed it into peace again.

The day was just as bleak without,
My neighbors just as cold within,
And truth was just as full of doubt,
The world was just as full of sin.

But in the light of that young smile
The world grew pure, the heart grew warm,
And sunshine gleamed a little while
Across the darkness of the storm.

I did not care to seek her name.
I only said "God bless thy life,
Thy sweet young grace be still the same,
Or happy maid or happy wife."
1873. —P. B.

GRANDMOTHER.

She Does Not Keep Pace With the Advance of Medical Science.

We all know just what adorable creatures all grandmothers are, and how they cannot do enough for the little ones belonging to their sons and daughters. Now, without wishing to appear ungrateful for these attentions, there are some mothers who think themselves quite capable of caring for their own babies, and the continual and persistent contrary opinion of grandma becomes after a time vexatious rather than helpful.

Even though grandma has brought up a dozen children, and this is her daughter's very first experience in that line, it is just as well not to give overliberal doses of advice, nor is it good policy to empty out the medicine the doctor prescribes for baby's cough and substitute sirup of squills, because sirup of squills was all that the youngsters of another generation were dosed with.

The latter medicine may be regarded by grandma as the most perfect cough remedy in existence, but the prescribed drops or pellets may be quite as effective, and it is but natural that the young mother and the physician in charge should feel a bit annoyed at the assumption of superior knowledge, however well founded it may be.

Babies need as varied treatment as plants do. What may have answered splendidly for grandma's dozen might prove quite the reverse of beneficial for the fin de siecle youngster, and even though a baby is a novelty to the young mother nature will be her best teacher as to its wants and cares. Grandma must remember that she had to be initiated in her superior baby training before she could pose as an oracle, and would she have been pleased to have had her authority wrenched from her by a wiser somebody who scorned her methods and ridiculed her lack of wisdom?

When the young mother asks for advice, it is time enough to give it to her. She is certain to do so and will appreciate most kindly the valuable hints the more experienced mother can give her, but her feelings will be quite the reverse if advice is thrust upon her and the care of her own precious baby taken peremptorily out of her hands.—Louisville Post.

How the Money Goes.

It is unsafe to allow any ordinary woman to enter a store with money. She has such a craving for luxuries, such a contempt for mere necessities, that she almost invariably purchases the former and is constantly in need of the latter. She goes forth to purchase an opera bonnet because she is going to the opera that very night, but her eye is caught by a tea gown, a bargain tea gown, and she buys it. That night some man seated behind a diamond-strewn wife may glimpse sweets. She goes out to buy a jacket, needing one sorely, but her erratic fancy is caught by lace trimmed underwear, and before she realizes it she is revelling in new nightgowns and corset covers. She has even been known to go out to buy writing paper and to return with nothing but a blue and white cup and saucer.—Philadelphia Times.

Smoked Cigarettes Thirty Years.

"People talk about cigarettes being unhealthful, but the fact that I am still alive is proof to the contrary," said a middle aged man. "I began smoking them 30 years ago, before they were made in this part of the country and when few were imported. It is a far cry to the time when there were no American cigarettes, and I feel old when I look back to it. I ought to add that I have never inhaled the smoke of cigarettes, which perhaps accounts for their not killing me long ago. I may also add, in strict confidence, that the reason I have smoked cigarettes is that cigars and pipes make me sick."—New York Sun.

So He Did.

Lord Salisbury, while on a visit to his nephew, Mr. A. J. Balfour, M. P., in Haddingtonshire, amused himself by playing golf. One day the noble lord struck too low with his iron and asked his caddie:

"What have I hit?"

The youngster, who was without reverence, gruffly made answer:

"Scotland."—London Globe.

has been sold to put a girdle of it round about the earth, and a good deal over. Hundreds of millions of packages, in the last fifteen years, have made washing easy for millions of different women. This suggests a question—to the timid women who think that because Pearline saves so much work it must do some harm.

Could Pearline have been sold and used in that way and for this time, if it were dangerous? And another, addressed to all women: Isn't it better to be sure with Pearline, the original washing compound, which has been thus proved, rather than to risk it with some imitation about which you know nothing.

Send it Back Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers will tell you "this is as good as" or "the same as Pearline." IT'S FALSE—Pearline is never peddled, and if your grocer sends you something in place of Pearline, be honest—send it back. 375 JAMES PYLE, New York.

A TURN IN THE TIDE.

The 24th's Bowlers Defeat the Goshen Team—Three Interesting Games.

The seventh of the series of match games between the 24th Separate Company and the Goshen Athletic Club bowling teams was played on the Armory alleys, last evening. The men from the Hub have had an easy thing of it in the past, having won five out of the six matches played. They need to win but one more match to end the tournament, and the way they bowled last night showed that they came to Middletown prepared to end the struggle then and there.

The 24th boys, however, have been hard at work. A succession of defeats, together with the adverse criticism of their bowling efforts has had the effect of spurring them on. They have practiced hard and the result speaks for itself.

Their score in the first game, 812, has been beaten but once during the tournament, when at Midway Park, Goshen scored 818.

There was a large delegation of "rooters" present from the Goshen club and the 24th's friends turned out in large numbers.

Every strike or spare made on either side was greeted with howls of delight. A good natured badinage was kept up between the partisans and lots of amusement resulted.

The next match will be bowled at Midway Park. The scores:

A KNOWING HORSE.

He Lost a Shoe and Went to a Blacksmith and Had a New One Put On.

The Milford, Pa., correspondent of the Port Jervis Gazette writes that paper as follows:

Milford is the home of the smartest horse in the State. The other day "Spot," a horse in the possession of John Findlay, the popular liveryman, was turned loose, as was customary, to go to the watering trough for a drink, but instead he went direct to a blacksmith shop some distance away. Upon entering the shop it was discovered that a shoe was missing from one of its feet. The shoe was immediately replaced whereupon "Spot" returned, unassisted, as he had come to his master's home, and yet it is said that a horse cannot reason.

MUNYON'S TRIUMPH.

THE FIGHT AGAINST DISEASE, POISONOUS DRUGS AND OLD FOGYISM DECLARED IN HIS FAVOR.

Mr. J. Baumer Tells the Story of His Suffering and Cure.

Mr. J. Baumer, 42 E. Twenty-first st., Bayonne, N. J., says: "Eighteen months ago I was so crippled with rheumatism that I could not dress myself. I tried all the doctors in Bayonne, but they gave me up as hopeless. I also tried numerous preparations, but failed to find any relief. At last I heard of Munyon's Rheumatism Cure and began using it. ## BUSINESS BOOMING AT THE SILK MILL

The Columbia Print Works Rushed With Work—A New Feature.

Business is booming at the Columbia Print Works in this city. Superintendent Hutchinson said, to-day, that he did more business during the month of February than in any month during all the years he has been engaged in this branch of the silk trade.

The daily shipments of silk alone during the month were 10,000 yards. Besides, the establishment turned out large quantities of flannels, challies and printed ribbons, all of which are "side issues," but the rapid increase in the product in these lines is beginning to make them very important factors of the business.

The printing of ribbons is something entirely new, but these goods are taking immensely. Any colored ribbons are run through the presses and printed with any figure desired.

The factory is running on full time with a full complement of hands and the prospects for the future are very bright.

UNIONVILLE.

The Addition to the Silk Mill—Many New Dwelling Houses—To Remove to Deckertown—An Important Real Estate Transaction.

Correspondence ARGUS and MERCURY.

—The Minisink Silk Co., of this place, will have the foundation completed in a few days for the new addition, 44x100, to be all completed by April 20th. Mr. Ira Decker, of Westtown, has the contract for the carpenter work.

—Fourteen new dwellings have already been completed in this little village in the past nine months and occupied as soon as completed. Also one new silk mill, and foundations are now ready for two more new dwellings and many more are to be erected next summer.

—Mr. Chas. D. Elston is slowly recovering from an attack of grip.

—Messrs. Towner and Prescott, of Paterson, N. J., spent Sunday in Unionville.

—It is reported that Mr. Oliphant will remove his machinery next week to Deckertown, N. J., where he will continue the manufacture of ribbons.

—One of the largest real estate sales that has been made in Unionville in many years was by Wilbur, Samuel and Albert Van Fleet to H. D. Clark, of Johnson,—their two feed stores, two coal dumps and lumber sheds, also a vacant lot on Prospect street, for $7,100. He takes possession June 1st, 1895. Clark & Sons now own all the feed stores from Middletown to Deckertown.

MONTGOMERY.

Many Families Receiving Aid From the Poormaster—A Remedy Suggested for the Lazy Ones—To Build a Town Hall—Many Licenses Granted.

Correspondence ARGUS and MERCURY.

—To Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Flannery, on Monday, a girl.

—We have quite a number of families who receive aid from the poormaster. A number of these are of "de cullud population, sah," some of whom are well able to work. If they can't obtain work why not have our village purchase a stone crusher or some similar machine and set the able-bodied ones to work and thereby the corporation would receive a little recompense for the money expended. We make no exception, the white as well as the black should be made to earn their meal before they eat it. It would be a good law also to compel men who are sent as prisoners to our jails, instead of loafing about while in custody, to work the streets, etc. At our present rate the way of the transgressor is an easy one.

—And now we hear that we are to have a town hall. It is to be built by Landlord Millspaugh, of the Palace Hotel, on the corner of Union and Charles streets, in the old building vacated by Brown Bros. Let the good work go on.

—Very few sleighs are seen in town now.

—The Board of Excise met, Monday, at Walden and granted licenses to all former hotels in the town of Montgomery but one, Mr. Henry Wallace, of Maybrook, and he did not know of the meeting in time to procure the necessary papers. The Board also granted saloon licenses to George Bingley and Thomas Condon, of Walden, and Charles Kaune, of Montgomery.

—Miss Sadie I. Wood, of Middletown, spent Friday with her cousins, Misses Lena and Lizzie VanAlst.

—Dr. R. Kearns has been on the sick list, but is again able to be out.

AN OVERTURNING IN DECKERTOWN

The Republicans Completely Routed at Tuesday's Election.

The borough election in Deckertown was held Tuesday, and the result was a big surprise to the Republicans, or at least to the "ring," as it is commonly known, which has controlled public affairs for so long.

The Republican ticket was headed by Theo. F. Margarum for Mayor, and the citizens' ticket, mostly made up of Democrats, was led by Benjamin W. Decker, whose majority was nineteen, a very great victory when the usual Republican majority is considered.

DECKERTOWN.

Diphtheria in the Schools—The Death of Mrs. Bedell—Dead at 82 Years—Personal Notes.

Correspondence ARGUS and MERCURY.

—Miss Ettie Barrett, who has been visiting in East Deckertown, returned to her home in Middletown, last Thursday evening.

—Mr. and Mrs. George Truex, of Port Jervis, spent a couple of days with his brother, H. C. Truex, of this place.

—Richard Snook, of Lafayette, has accepted a position with Barkman & Mabie. He takes John Faulkner's place.

—Miss Fannie Dunning is a member of the State Normal choir, she having one of the best alto voices in the school.

—Diphtheria has again broken out, this time in the school. So far one death has resulted from it,—a child of Emil Ray. The public school is closed for a week at least for there are other cases in town.

—Mrs. Ella Bedell died at the home of her parents on Unionville avenue, Feb. 28th, of consumption, aged about twenty-four years. She is survived by a husband and one child. The funeral was held at her late home on Sunday, March 3. Interment was in Fairview Cemetery.

—Wm. Space died at his residence in this place last Tuesday afternoon, aged eighty-two years. He is survived by a wife and one son.

C. MACARDELL, - -
J. F. ROBINSON, - - - CITY EDITOR
A. E. NICKINSON, - BUSINESS MANAGER

THURSDAY, MARCH 14, 1895.

So great and universal is the destitution which prevails at St. John, N. B., that it is estimated that at least half the entire population is either in receipt of public charity or in need of it to keep them from starvation.

The whipping post bill was defeated in the Assembly, yesterday. Had the bill applied to wife-beaters it would undoubtedly have been passed, but with wife beaters specially exempted from the penalty of the bill, the legislators wisely thought it was worth while to add the cat o' nine tails to the punishments for crime.

The trustees of the Astor, Lenox and Tilden Libraries voted, yesterday, to consolidate their $8,000,000 of endowments, under the name of "The New York Public Library, Astor, Lenox and Tilden Foundations." The union will give New York a public library equal to the best and greatest in the world.

McKinley's southern trip is plainly taken for the purpose of strengthening himself in that section as a Presidential candidate. But McKinley should remember that the Presidential nomination never yet came to any man who hunted national delegates in the same style that candidates for constable hunt ward delegates.

The debate in the House of Representatives on the bill to admit antitoxine free of duty disclosed a degree of ignorance on the part of some of those participating in the discussion which almost passes belief. The Hon. Geo. W. Ray, representing the district composed of Delaware, Chenango, Broome, Tioga and Tompkins counties, was the chief opponent of the bill. His district being distinctively agricultural and therefore only remotely interested in the building up of new industries, Mr. Ray mounted the protection hobby, and according to the Congressional Record said:

I do not know what anti-toxine is, where it is made, what it is used for, nor whether it is animal, vegetable, or mineral, and I have inquired of a great many members of this House, but fail to find one here who has the slightest idea what this new discovery is, or what it is composed of. If it is a good thing, the owner of the patent or secret ought to come into the United States and establish an anti-toxine factory here and give us an American industry, and for the purpose of building up such an industry, if its production be an industry, in the United States, I oppose this bill.

Mr. Ray's astounding and ridiculous avowal of ignorance and his crazy plea for protection found a close second in Mr. Van Voorhis, of the 31st New York district, who wanted to know if the horse was not the raw material of anti-toxine, and whether under the bill horses could not come in free, thus bringing the American horse into ruinous competition with the pauper horses of Europe. Mr. Henderson, of Iowa, was the next participant in the discussion and gave the following lucid description of the process of preparing anti-toxine: "They vaccinate the horse with diphtheria. Then they put him onto (sic) a very high grade of feeding according to a formula which has been established, and they feed him up until his mane and tail are in the proper relation to each other, and then they bleed him and this blood is the anti-toxine." This gentleman was fully impressed with the idea that the preparation of anti-toxine involved setting to work the machinery of torture on the horse, and in his most serious vein he declared that Congress should not commit itself to this animal-torturing business till it knew something about it.

Uncle Tom's Cabin

The parade of the Uncle Tom's Cabin Co., at noon, to-day, attracted a crowd as many people as if it had been a circus. The ponies, mules and blackamoors, and little Eva's chariot, together with the bands and the cabin on wheels, made quite a display.

To Entertain Dewitt Camp.

Captain Jackson Post, No. 391, and Relief Corps are fast becoming famous for their entertainments, and are taking a high rank in this respect in society circles in our city. On Tuesday evening, March 19 they will entertain Gen. D. P. Dewitt Camp, S. of V. with a banquet and entertainment in their rooms in the Low block. A fine time is anticipated.

That scrofulous taint which has been in your blood for years, will be expelled by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla the great blood purifier.

IT USED TO BE

that the good old family doctor riding his horseback over the country in all sorts of weather, carried in his saddle bags the few simple medicines with which he combated disease, NOT forgetting Calomel or the Lancet. The remedies were few and if he hadn't the right one he used the next best Don't say they were good old times. It was an age of substitution, of makeshift in many ways. The busy doctor had scarce time to master his own profession. He was his own druggist, knew little of pharmacy, and his drugs, though the best he could obtain, would scarce pass inspection in these latter days. Time has changed all that, and the old family doctor has developed into the skilled physician of to-day,—master of his profession because devoting himself to it, enabled to do so because the development of Pharmacy has relieved him of the drudgery of preparing and dispensing his own medicines, and in a properly equipped Pharmacy a thousand remedies await his choosing and the little prescription which he writes ensures to the patient the exact remedy required in most efficient form

Without fear of challenge we claim our Pharmacy to be a type of the very best It is stocked with the best that science has produced or research has discovered and every quarter of the globe contributes its quota of crude drugs which, in our laboratory, are made into finished and elegant preparations for the sick room Frequent additions are made to it, and it is so complete that there's no need of substitution and every prescription is dispensed exactly as ordered. It is backed up with a carefully guarded business record of 25 years to protect in every way our customers' interests of health and pocket. We invite your prescriptions, whether simple or complex.

"WOODIE" AND JACOBUS.

Both Recommended by Prominent Republicans With Very Different Results—The Why Of It.

Two years ago Mr. C. J. Boyd and other prominent Republicans recommended the appointment of Theo. Wood on the police force, because "he worked hard all that day for the Republican ticket in the Second Ward." "Woodie" was taken care of with a promptness that astonished him and his backers, and in less than twenty-four hours was wearing a badge swinging a club and carrying a revolver.

This year Mr. Boyd and other Republicans recommended the appointment of A. P. Jacobus on the police force, but they committed to certify that he "worked hard all day for the Republican ticket" and the Council promptly turned Jacobus down.

Learn from this, ye aspirant for place under the city government, that unless it is recited in your application that you "worked hard" for Republican success "your name is mud."

WAGONS IN COLLISION.

A Runaway Through James Street—Thrown from a Wagon.

A horse belonging to A. D. Cox & Son, the Fulton street butchers, became frightened at a trolley car, on James street, this morning, and started to run away. The wheels of the vehicles became interlocked and the horses had a short pulling match until subdued by bystanders.

Mr. Robert J. Leemon was thrown from his wagon by the force of the collision, but escaped uninjured.

For the first time in years men who had not paid their poll tax were permitted to vote.

Don't Want to Be Added to the Second District.

Kingston papers vigorously protest against the plan to annex Ulster county to the Second Judicial District. They say there is already great delay in hearing cases on appeal and if the proposed change is made bad matters will be worse for the wheels of justice more, even more slowly in the Second District than they do in the Third.

AN EXPENSIVE PLANK.

An Italian, Caught Helping Himself to O. and W. Lumber, Pays $10 Fine.

There is a class of people in this city who, when in want of a stick of lumber, a board, a bag of coal or any other like article, do not consider it stealing when they walk up to a loaded freight car standing on a side track and help themselves. The railroad corporations are supposed to be rich and the owners or consignees of the desired articles are not in sight, and one board or one bag of coal will not be missed anyway.

James Belaso, an Italian, wanted a board to make a box, in which to raise some tomato plants, so about 4:30 o'clock this morning, he went to the O. and W.'s carpenter shop and lumber yard, near Charles street, and helped himself to a fourteen-foot spruce plank.

A special officer has been on duty for some time past on the lookout for just such "borrowers," and Belaso fell into his clutches.

The Italian is a hard working, steady sort of fellow, and this was his first police court experience so the Recorder let him off with a fine of $10 or ten days He paid the fine.

A NEW FIRM.

J. H. Burch Purchases an Interest in the Planing Mills and Lumber Business of L. V. Sinsabaugh.

Mr. John H. Burch has purchased an interest in the planing mill, sash and blind factory and lumber business of L. V. Sinsabaugh the copartnership thus formed dating from March 1st. The style of the firm will be L. V. Sinsabaugh & Co.

Both members of the firm are well known hereabouts. The senior member, Alderman Sinsabaugh has conducted the planing mill and sash and blind factory for the past eight years having purchased it from Emmet Platt. It is the oldest establishment of the kind in the city. About a year ago Mr. Sinsabaugh started a lumber yard on Union street.

The junior member of the firm is a son of Rev. B. H. Burch, of Newburgh, a former pastor of St. Paul's Church and has resided in this city for the past seven years and has made very many friends. For the past five years he has been in the employ of Mr. Sinsabaugh, being in charge of the office, which department he will continue to look after under the new arrangement.

WOMEN'S WORK FOR THE Y M. C. A

Yesterday's Meeting in the Interest of the Ladies' Auxiliary—Interesting and Practical Addresses.

The ladies who braved the nastiness of yesterday afternoon to attend the meeting held in the interests of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Young Men's Christian Association, were well repaid for their trouble.

Mr. Hawkins stated in a few words the object of the meeting, which was to interest the ladies in the welfare of the young men of our city. Mrs. Sweezy then charmed all present with her rendering of a beautiful solo, after which Mr. Hawkins spoke of the Conference of Auxiliaries held at Syracuse a few weeks ago Twenty-six auxiliaries were represented by forty delegates.

Mr. Hawkins related an incident of a Swiss boy who has been benefited by the Association, and who was reached through the interest felt for him by a christian woman. His parents are uneducated in the ways of our country, and cannot speak English, but he has joined the class in telegraphy, and promises to become an expert telegrapher. He also is given lessons in arithmetic and penmanship, once or twice a week, by one of the members of the Association.

Mr. Norris then spoke in a very enthusiastic and interesting manner. He said, "Some ask what is the use of a Young Men's Christian Association? Are not the churches enough? They would be if they would or could do the work the Young Men's Christian Association is doing. The churches are opened only on Sundays for the regular services, and once a week for the prayer meeting There is no place there for a young man to go to spend a social hour with a friend, or to read a book or paper. When we see a strange young man in our church, and are asked the question, "Did you speak to that stranger?" we reply "Why no, I never had an introduction to him." Did you have an introduction to the clerk with whom you traded, yesterday? You say I spoke to him on business. That was your own business, but this is the King's business. Much good can be done by opening your homes to homeless young men. I know what it is to live in a boarding house, and there have been times when I would have given all the money I had to have seen the inside of a home. Invite such a one to your home to supper. Let him have what you serve your own family. He will not be critical, and you will have gained in him a lifelong friend.

The meeting closed with the benediction by Mr. Norris, but the ladies did not go directly home. Their hearts were warmed by what they had heard, and they stayed to talk over with each other what can be done for our young men.

INCIDENTS AND HAPPENINGS IN GOSHEN.

Funeral of the Late Theodore K. Cox Defeated by Monticello Bowlers—Social—Laying a Crosswalk—Good Templars Going to Middletown

From Our Regular Correspondent.

—The funeral of the late Theodore K Cox at the Presbyterian Church, this afternoon, was largely attended by relatives and friends. The services were conducted by Rev R. B. Clark, assisted by members of Orange Lodge, No. 506 I. O. O. F., of which the deceased was a member He was also an honorary member of Cataract Engine and Hose Co., and that organization was present at the funeral in a body. The floral offerings were profuse and handsome, among them being a large pillow of roses furnished by the telegraph operators along the main line and branches of the Eastern Division of the Erie. Another handsome pillow, emblematic of the order of Odd Fellows, was presented by Orange Lodge of Goshen. Members of this lodge were present in full force. A large delegation of telegraphers was also in attendance. The remains of the deceased were taken to Middletown on train 33 and interred in Hillside Cemetery. The Odd Fellows burial service was said at the grave.

WEDDED IN A VAULT.

William and Viola Clasped Hands In the Dark, and the Justice Did the Rest.

A marriage in the inky darkness of a vault is something decidedly unique, but that is the sort of a wedding that occurred in the courthouse the other morning.

About 11 o'clock a fine looking young man and two decidedly good looking and stylishly dressed young women entered the recorder of deeds' office and asked for a marriage license, and one was issued to William Dray and Viola Roderick. They said that the marriage was to be a surprise and requested that nothing be said about the granting of the license. Then they consulted together and finally asked if they could be married right there. Recorder Qneal hastened to the telephone and called up Justice Ebert. Before the justice arrived word had passed around that a wedding was to occur, and the room was filled with uninvited guests. The groom did not relish this; neither did the bride; neither did the bride's sister, who was of the party. The door to the large vault where the records are kept stood invitingly open, and the groom said:

"Let's step in here," and the bridal party entered the vault. It was brilliantly lighted and filled with the dull odor of musty records. The bride glanced about, frightened a bit, but then looked at the groom and smiled sweetly. The groom, evidently a brave man, was not as nervous as the justice, who fumbled to get from his pocket a paper upon which he had written the words of a simple marriage ceremony. The door was shut softly behind the party, and the wedding was screened from curious eyes.

The justice was getting along fairly well and had just reached that part in the ceremony where he asked the couple to join hands when something happened. One of the clerks had slipped to the switchboard and turned off the lights in the vault. Everything was as black as darkest midnight. The bride and groom could not see each other. The justice could not see them. It was no time to stop to falter, however.

"Find her hand," said the justice, and the hands came together as though they had met in the dark before.

"By the authority vested in me by the law I pronounce you man and wife."

It was over, and Mr. and Mrs. Dray came out into the light of day as happy as though they had been married in the noonday glare of a thousand suns.—Kansas City Times.

WORST DURING THIS GENERATION.

Cold Weather Occasioned Unusual Hardships and Sickness In Great Britain.

The misery caused by the severity of the weather throughout Great Britain and all European countries has been unprecedented in the present generation. Even well to do Londoners have been compelled to endure extraordinary annoyances. The gas and water pipes of the city are laid only 2 to 2½ feet deep, which is beyond the reach of an ordinary frost. This time the icy visitor did not relax his hold till he had closed nearly half of them. Fully a third of the street lights failed to burn for a whole week, and almost half of the householders of London were obliged to get their water supply from the stand pipes, which were put up in the streets throughout the metropolis.

The departing frost left a worse evil in its train. The influenza became epidemic. If private inquiries furnish an accurate indication of its extent, then fully 15 per cent of the population have been stricken. Its type is severe, but not so persistent as five years ago. The attack is usually sudden and often accompanied by such complete collapse that the patient falls in a fainting fit. Recovery, however, in many cases is rapid. I met two or three victims who felt able to venture out, although they were carried home utterly helpless when first attacked five or six days before. The sudden outbreak declared itself especially in the house of commons, where a large number of members fell victims, and in several of the great schools, some of which, it is feared, will have to be disbanded for the term.—New York Sun's London Letter.

The Inevitable.

Tim Campbell called at the White House just before congress adjourned and then went up to the capitol. And, according to Tim, here is what was said at the White House:

"'How's your babby,' says Mr. Cleveland to me. 'Foine,' says I. 'Me girl walks around the libr'y now and looks at all the books.'

"'Surely that's foine,' says the president. 'My babbies are doing well, but they don't do that. But it's a great thing,' says he to me, 'for us old folks to have the babbies around us.'

"'Faith and it is,' says I to him; 'it is a great thing. But,' says I, 'we have to accept the inevitable, Mr. President, we have to accept the inevitable.'"—Washington Post.

Rebecca Wilkinson, of Brownsvalley, Ind., says: "I have been in a distressed condition for three years from nervousness, weakness of the stomach, dyspepsia and indigestion until my health was gone. I had been doctoring constantly with no relief. I bought one bottle of South American Nervine, which did me more good than any $50 worth of doctoring I ever did in my life. I would advise every weakly person to use this valuable and lovely medicine; a few bottles of it have cured me completely. I consider it the grandest medicine in the world." "About one year ago I was afflicted with nervousness, sleeplessness, Creeping sensation in my legs, Slight palpitation of my heart, Distracting confusion of the mind, Serious loss or lapse of memory. Weighted down with care and worry. I completely lost appetite And felt my vitality wearing out, I was weak, irritable and tired, My weight was reduced to 160 lbs., In fact I was no good, on earth.

A friend brought me Dr. Miles' book, "New and Startling Facts," and I finally decided to try a bottle of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. Before I had taken one bottle I could sleep as well as a 10-yr.-old boy. My appetite returned greatly increased.

When I had taken the sixth bottle My weight increased to 176 lbs., The sensation in my legs was gone; My nerves steadied completely; My memory was fully restored. My brain seemed clearer than ever. I felt as good as any man on earth. Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine is A great medicine, I assure you."

Augusta, Me. WALTER R. BURBANK.

ALL HOPE LOST.

He Tried to Get Ahead of His Wife, but Failed.

"Do you ever try to get ahead of your wife?" Mr McBride asked of Mr. Cumso.

"Not now," replied the latter, with an air which indicated the failure of some attempts in that l... "Do you?"

"I haven't been married as long as you have, and that may be the reason I have not yet given up all hope of succeeding, but I must admit that my last attempt was anything but successful."

"Let us hear it."

"I found in the morning paper what looked to me like a very attractive advertisement—that is, I thought it would be attractive to my wife. It was a glowing description of a new lot of sealskin sacks just bought from a firm which had gone into bankruptcy, and which were to be sold by the firm which had been fortunate enough to secure them at an immense reduction from ruling prices. Now, I did not feel able to indulge my wife in a seal skin, and I was desirous that she should not see the advertisement, but I took the wrong means to keep it from her."

"What did you do?"

"Why, I cut out the advertisement before she saw the paper."

"Well?"

"Well, I went down town, and after I was gone she picked up the paper. She saw the hole. The rest of the sheet had no charms for her. All the other interesting news it contained might as well not have been printed. She wanted to know what was cut out, and she put on her wraps and started for a newsstand without a minute's delay. The rest of the story is easily told. When I reached home, she had one of those sacks."

"'It was such a perfect bargain, I could not resist it,' she explained. 'I really needed it, too, for I hadn't a wrap that was fit to be seen on the street, you know. And you won't have to pay for it until the 1st of next month, Harry, dear, for I had it charged. Now, tell me if your dear little wife isn't an excellent manager?' I had to admit that she was," added McBride, with a sigh.—Truth.

Too Much Remorse.

There had been a feud of long standing between two Galveston darkies. They were continually fighting and quarreling. Not long since one of them died, and, to the astonishment of the colored population, the other one attended the funeral. After the funeral services were over the Rev. Aminidab Bledso, the presiding clergyman, met the surviving enemy and said impressively:

"I was much pleased to see yer at de obsequies ob yore ole enemy. Hit does credit to de goodness ob yore heart. Hit shows dat yer don't carry yore presentiments beyond de grave. Ever'body is praisin yer for yore goodness."

"I dunno about dat ar'. I had to lose half a day's work attendin dat ar' funeral, and de Biblo says 'business fust and pleasure afterward,' and I tuck do pleasure fust and did my work afterward. I reckon I ought to be ashamed of myself."—Texas Siftings.

The Way the Case Was Settled.

"A wire grass Georgia judge has just decided a big dog case."

"How did it turn out?"

"You see, a man went to Texas and left his dog with a neighbor, and when he came back he wanted the dog."

"Well?"

"The judge decided that the man who had the dog didn't have a title, and that a fellow who would leave a good dog oughtn't to own one."

"What did the judge do about it?"

"Kept the dog himself."—Atlanta Journal.
